A lawsuit has been started against you in the above-entitled Court by Yvette Benavidez, individually, and as Personal Representative of the Estate of Eloy Benavidez (“Plaintiff”). Plaintiff’s claim is stated in the written Complaint, a copy of which is served upon you with this Summons.

In order to defend against this lawsuit, you must respond to the Complaint by stating your defense in writing, and by serving a copy upon the person signing this Summons, within twenty (20) days after the date this Summons was served upon you, exclusive of the day of service, or within sixty (60) days if this Summons was served outside the State of Washington, or a default judgment may be entered against you without notice. A default judgment is one where the Plaintiff is entitled to what he asks for because you have not responded. If you serve a Notice of Appearance on the undersigned person, you are entitled to notice before a default judgment is entered.

You may demand that the Plaintiff file this lawsuit with the Court. If you do so, the demand must be in writing and must be served upon the person signing this Summons. Within fourteen (14) days after you serve the demand, the Plaintiff must file this lawsuit with the Court, or the service on you of this Summons and Complaint will be void.

If you wish to seek the advice of an attorney in this matter, you should do so promptly so that your written response, if any, may be served on time.
